

SPONSORED BY

Seattle's Premier Haunted Attraction

Returns for Its 19th Season of Fear

Seattle's Longest Running Haunted Attraction

The Georgetown Morgue is rooted in Seattle tragedy and legend. Once the site of thousands of funeral preparations and cremations, it is connected to one of the city's most chilling unsolved crimes, where nine staff members were forced into the crematorium and never seen again. Now, the legend lives on. Step inside the dark halls of the

GEORGETOWN MORGUE...

The Georgetown Morgue is Seattle's must-see experience for the Halloween Season!

Whether it is your first haunted attraction or you are a longtime horror fan, the Georgetown Morgue is a must see Halloween experience.

"We've been scaring Seattle for nearly two decades, and every year we find new ways to make the experience more intense," said owner Scott Kolling. "This season brings new scares and experiences that fans will not want to miss."

EVENT DETAILS

Dates: September 25th- November 7th, 2026

Nights Open: 26 Selected Nights

Location: 5000 E Marginal Way S., Seattle, WA 98134 Free Parking Available

Purchase tickets online only at WWW.SEATTLEHAUNTS.COM

For more information contact:

info@seattlehaunts.com

www.facebook.com/georgetownmorgue